· Records by

The Columbia has the rare good fortune to present its first records by Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson, the gifted daughter of the President of the United States-a young artist whose vocal accomplishments would, if turned to professional account, gain her without question a place of high honor in competitive artistic activities.

The first three records now issued by us present some of Miss Wilson's favorite songs, each one of them also, as it happens, a song that lies close to the aifections of every class.

Washington, D. C., March 12, 1914.

Columbia Graphophone Company, New York City:

Gentlemen: The making of records of my voice in your laboratory has been a unique experience for me, and it will be long before I forget the wonder and fascination of your process. I consider the Columbia Records to be, on the whole, the most beautiful I have heard. They are especially remarkable for their clarity of diction and tone. My own records, I must frankly say, have delighted me.
